Masks are required at all times. The schedule for all in-person service and program offerings is subject to change should Covid-19 trends make it unwise for us to gather as a community.

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

SELICHOT

8:00pm (8/28) We begin the process of earnest reflection and repentance with the prayers of Selichot. Student Cantor Sierra Fox joins Rabbi Aaron Meyer, Rabbi Alex Greenbaum, Ron Schneider, and the Beth El community for this meaningful service inclusive of Havdalah and sounding of the Shofar.

ROSH HASHANAH

8:45am (9/7) Temple's sanctuary, and the chance to be together at the start of a new year, hold resonance for some that virtual services cannot capture. If you have weighed the risks and understand Temple's COVID mitigation strategies, we invite you to join us for some familiar melodies of the High Holy Days, a reading from Torah, and the sounding of the Shofar in this 45 minute in-person, indoor Sanctuary Experience. Masks required.

9:00am (9/7) Family Services for the youngest among us feature stories and songs that touch upon the themes of the day in engaging and creative ways.

8:00pm (9/6 - Erev Rosh Hashanah) & *10:00am (9/7) Rabbi Aaron Meyer is joined by Student Cantor Sierra Fox, accompanist Jim Burns, and soloists Rebecca Closson and Neil Weinstein for our LIVE traditional Rosh Hashanah services. Familiar melodies of the High Holy Days accompany the inspiring communal prayers of Jewish tradition in these full worship experiences.

4:00pm (9/7) Our outdoor family service offers catchy melodies, inspiring prayers, and a quick story to engage families in the themes of Rosh Hashanah before the Tashlich experience to follow. We will gather behind the Upper St. Clair Township Municipal Building/Library, 1820 McLaughlin Run Road. Masks required.

4:30pm (9/7) Tashlich, the ceremony where we symbolically cast away our transgressions as part of the process of teshuvah, also offers the chance to hear the sounding of the shofar. We will gather behind the Upper St. Clair Township Municipal Building/Library, 1820 McLaughlin Run Road. Masks required.

DAYS OF AWE

7:00pm (9/11) Join Rabbis Aaron and Emily Meyer and musician Tim Brogdon for a fun outdoor Havdalah and Shofar blowing, taking home a goody bag with the sweetness of the season. Masks required.

11:00am (9/12) Jewish tradition commends those who honor their departed during this auspicious time of year. Together we remember our loved ones, interred here or elsewhere, through a ceremony of memory and reflection in the Temple section of the Mt. Lebanon Cemetery. Masks required.

YOM KIPPUR

9:00am (9/16) Family Services for the youngest among us feature stories and songs that touch upon the themes of the day in engaging and creative ways.

8:00pm (9/15 - Kol Nidre), *10:00am (9/16), and *3:00pm (9/16) Rabbi Aaron Meyer is joined by Student Cantor Sierra Fox, accompanist Jim Burns, and soloists Rebecca Closson and Neil Weinstein for our LIVE traditional Yom Kippur services. Familiar melodies of the High Holy Days accompany the inspiring communal prayers of Jewish tradition in these full worship experiences.

1:00pm (9/16) Temple's sanctuary, and the chance to be together as we remember our loved ones, hold resonance for some that virtual services cannot capture. If you have weighed the risks and understand Temple's COVID mitigation strategies, we invite you to join us for Yizkor, the memorial prayers of Jewish tradition, in this 45 minute in-person, indoor Sanctuary Experience. Masks required.

2:00pm (9/16) Information and Zoom links for study sessions with Rabbi Aaron Meyer and Student Cantor Sierra Fox coming soon.

* Services and experiences marked with an asterisk are virtual only.

Meet Temple's High Holy Days Musicians

Sierra Fox

Cantorial Intern & Soloist

Sierra Fox, mezzo-soprano, is an internationally regarded soloist/ensemble singer with a background in interfaith outreach. Based in Philadelphia, she has sung with a vast number of sacred and secular choirs, while also touring throughout the United States, Europe, and South America. In recent years, she has served as section leader/soloist for the Mendelssohn Choir of Philadelphia, cantorial soloist at Reform Congregation Keneseth Israel, staff singer at the Cathedral Basilica of Ss. Peter and Paul, cantor at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, and lead singer/percussionist for mythic-folk band Soundweaver and interfaith Kirtan ensemble Mandala. Ms. Fox has also sung professionally with numerous other choirs/organizations, including The Thirteen, Neva Pilgrim's Society for New Music and the Syracuse Opera Company. She has recently performed as alto soloist in Bernstein's Chichester Psalms and Adlers' Five Sephardic Choruses at the Kimmel Center; Duruflé's Requiem, Rachmaninoff's All-Night Vigil, and Bach's Magnificat with the Mendelssohn Choir of Philadelphia; Mozart's Dominicus-Messe with the Reading Choral Society, and Mozart's Requiem with the Academy Chorale and Orchestra. Ms. Fox received her BM in Voice Performance/Religion and Society from Syracuse University, followed by graduate study in Voice Performance at Temple University, and is currently pursuing Cantorial ordination at Hebrew Union College. This year, she is honored to serve as Student Cantor at Temple Emanuel of South Hills in Pittsburgh, PA, as well as providing musical leadership at Congregation Beth Yam in Hilton Head, South Carolina in the spring.

James Burns

Accompanist

Jim Burns is a frequent performer with groups like The Opera Theater of Pittsburgh, The Bach Choir, and The Mendelssohn Choir. As a pianist for the Civic Light Opera, he has performed in over 100 musical theater productions. He has had the pleasure of bringing music to young students through his work with educational outreach programs for Gateway to Music and Pittsburgh Opera. Presently the organist at Westminster Presbyterian Church, he has served at Temple Emanuel since 2014.

Rebecca Closson

Soloist

Rebecca Closson is an instrumental musician and music educator. Originally from the Pittsburgh area, Rebecca has played in solo engagements, chamber groups, and symphony ensembles, and has taught in preschool programs, primary school, and at the collegiate level in Illinois and Pennsylvania. As a lifelong student of the arts, Rebecca enjoys collaborating across many different platforms to engage a variety of audiences in music-making and education. Rebecca is a wife, mother of two sons, and the music teacher at the Temple Emanuel Early Childhood Development Center.

Neil Weinstein

Soloist

Neil Weinstein returns as a soloist for Temple Emanuel's High Holy Day services. A native of Seattle, Washington, Neil leads Shabbat, holiday, and life-cycle services at synagogues throughout the Pacific Northwest. Neil brings a vast repertoire of Jewish music, a comfort with both cantorial and folksy forms of worship, and a tremendous menchlikite to everything that he does. Neil is a husband, father of two, and controller for a multi-state pipe and fitting manufacturer.

Preparing for the High Holy Days at Home

HOME RITUALS

The Hebrew month of Elul is one of spiritual preparation for the High Holy Days. The ancient rabbis even imagined the name of the month as an acronym -- “ani l'dodi v'dodi li: I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine (Song of Songs 6:3)” -- to remind both God and the people of Israel of our eternal connection. Recognizing that this Elul will continue to look different than years past, we offer these personal practices and rituals to allow you to embrace the spirit and themes of the High Holy Days.

1 Reboot, a creative organization that bills itself as the “premier R&D platform for the Jewish world,” offers an online reflective exercise for the Days of Awe. 10Q sends one question a day to your email for thoughtful consideration. Your answers are sealed in a personal online vault to be returned to you next year for reflection. If you wish to share your answers with the wider community, either anonymously or with attribution, you are also welcome to do so! Visit <https://www.doyou10q.com/> to learn more.

2 D-I-Y Tashlich Resources: Tashlich, the ceremony where we symbolically cast away our transgressions as part of the process of teshuvah, is deeply reflective. Where have I missed the mark and seek to do better in 5781? With whom do I still need to make amends? Prayers and readings can be found here: <https://www.templemanuelpgh.org/pray/high-holy-days-2021/> so that you can find meaning in this ancient tradition whether you choose to join us in-person or do-it-yourself.

3 There are so many amazing books about Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur that it is difficult to choose only one. S.Y. Agnon's Days of Awe is a classic compendium of folklore, poetry, and preparatory materials; Reuven Hammer's Entering the High Holy Days a comprehensive guide to the prayers and their historical development. Rosh Hashanah Readings by Doc Peretz Elkins blends contemporary stories with modern reflections; Alan Lew's This Is Real And You Are Completely Unprepared invites us to connect to faith and tradition during the Days of Awe. Pick one up from amazon.com or Rabbi Meyer's study as you prepare for 5782.

4 The High Holiday Liturgy reminds us that this is a time to focus on tzedakah, righteous care of others in need. Instead of waiting for year's end and tax time, now is the perfect time to facilitate conversations and intentionality around your philanthropic giving. What's important to you right now? Where can you make a difference this year? There is no better time than the present to fulfill the Jewish concept of tikkun olam, doing what we can to make our corner of the world a little bit better.

and tomorrow only a vision. But today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.”

(Sanskrit Proverb)

May each new day in this new year be filled with health, happiness, and joy.
Shanah Tovah!

RABBIS AARON & EMILY, EVELYN AND ELI MEYER

We cannot look forward to the new year without looking back upon the old year. May all of 5781's challenges and trials instill in us a sense of gratitude for all the blessings that 5782 promises to bring. May every prayer from your heart be answered. May every hope springing from your soul be fulfilled. May every righteous thought illuminating your mind come to pass. We wish you a year of health, happiness, sweetness and peace.

Shalom, Rabbi Mark Mahler, Alice and all of our children and grandchildren

SOUTH HILLS INTERFAITH MOVEMENT

FOOD DRIVE

The South Hills Interfaith Movement is dedicated to reducing the devastating effects of poverty among the working poor, unemployed, senior citizens, refugees, and all who are struggling. SHIM mobilizes community resources and implements sustainable programs that compassionately help our neighbors in need, with three South Hills food pantries, seasonally-appropriate clothing, and utility obligations.

SHIM is dedicated to our community, and we are dedicated to SHIM. With your help, Temple raised more than $10,000 for SHIM's emergency assistance efforts at the beginning of the COVID-19 unemployment crisis. Tremendous gratitude goes to everyone who was able to help...and we also realize that our neighbors' needs both predated COVID-19 and continue to this day.

A donation of canned goods and non-perishable foods is a large part of Temple Emanuel's observance of the High Holy Days and will continue in 5782 with renewed urgency. Please drop off your donations at Temple between Rosh Hashanah and September 30th in the Courtyard vestibule on weekdays, or bring them with you to services or Torah Center. Our 4th grade families will deliver them to SHIM.

Support SHIM virtually – donate at www.shimcares.org/donate
